Newport Infant School—Geography/Science

Topic: Weather	Key Stage 1 Year 1	Weather and seasonal change

What should I already know?

-

What I will know by the end of the unit

- Name the 4 seasons
- Identify the main weather patterns linked to each season
- Match weather to season
- Know how weather affects peoples lives
- Know how weather affects the lives of animals
- Know the main celebrations that go with each season

Geographical / Science Skills

- Observation
- Recording of temperatures
- Interpret results
- Compare and contrast seasons
- Express opinions and relate changes to

Vocabulary

autumn	A season when the temperature starts to drop cold	A low temperature celebration	A joyous, social occasion hibernate	Animals sleep in winter hot	A high temperature rain	Warm falling from the sky season	Four different times of the year snow	Frozen rain falling from the sky spring	A season when the temperature starts to rise summer	A season when the temperature is at its warmest sunshine	Light coming from the sun temperature	A scale for measuring hot and cold warm	In between hot and cold, a comfortable temperature wind	Movement of the air winter	A season when the temperature starts at its coldest