Our learning journey so far this week...

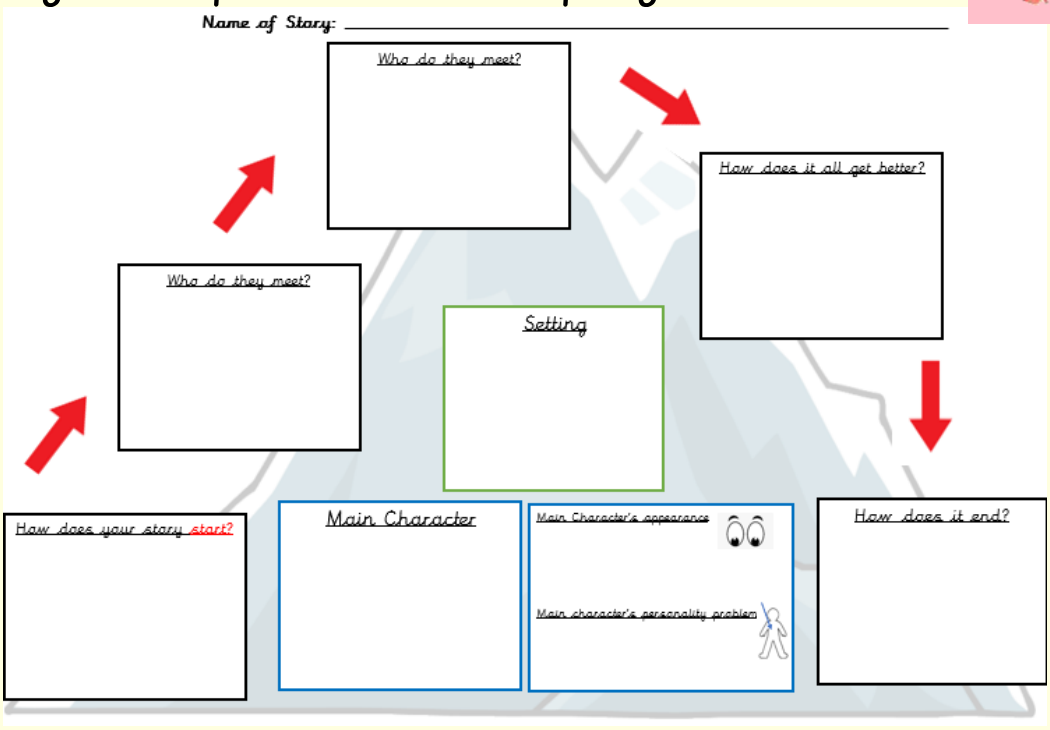

Share your favourite Eric Carle book so far and say why!

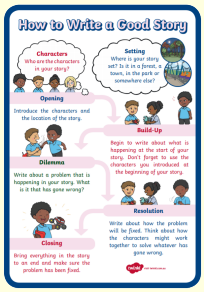

Share your story with your partner...
Use your plan to help you!

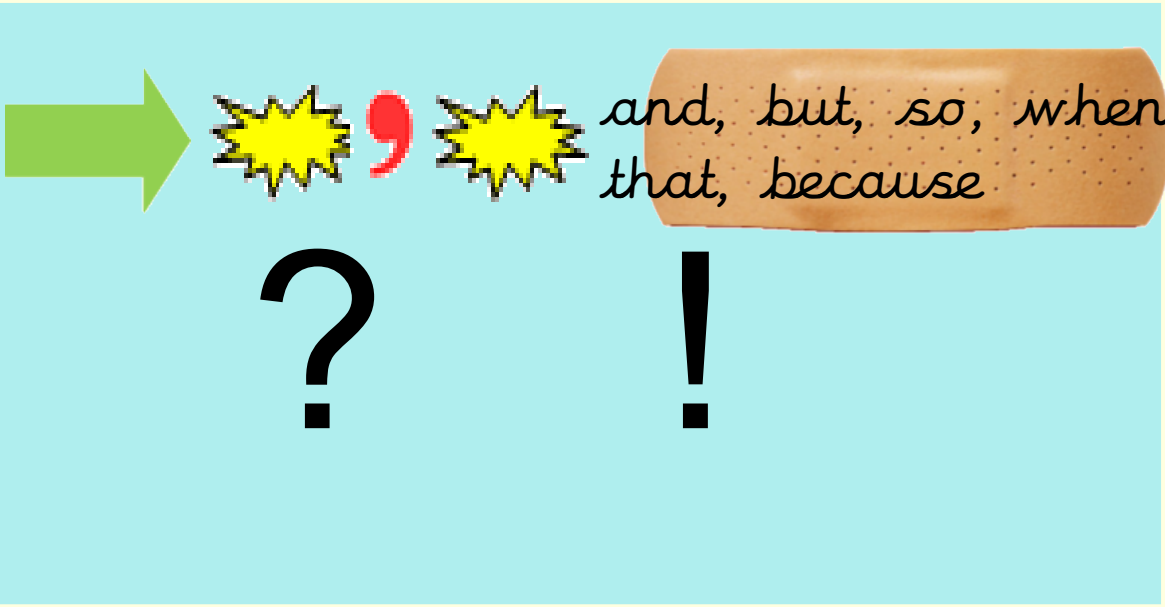

What do we need to include in our story to make it really interesting to read?

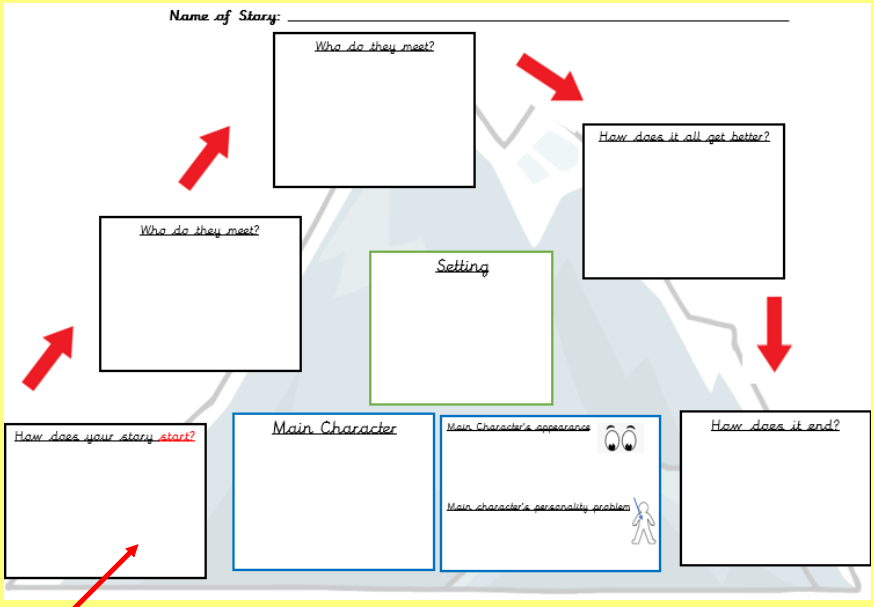

Wagoll

One cold, dreary night the moon shone down and watched a dark, gloomy forest. Hidden on the ground underneath a pile of brown, soggy mud was a tiny, delicate egg waiting to pop!

As the morning drew close, the hot, happy sun swapped places with moon and brightened up the darkness with its light. Suddenly there was a loud, piercing POP sound! The tiny, delicate egg had hatched and out popped a very rude ant! "Good Morning!" sang the cheery caterpillar but the ant turned his face sharply and walked away. "What a rude ant!" whined the caterpillar and off he went to enjoy his day. Next....

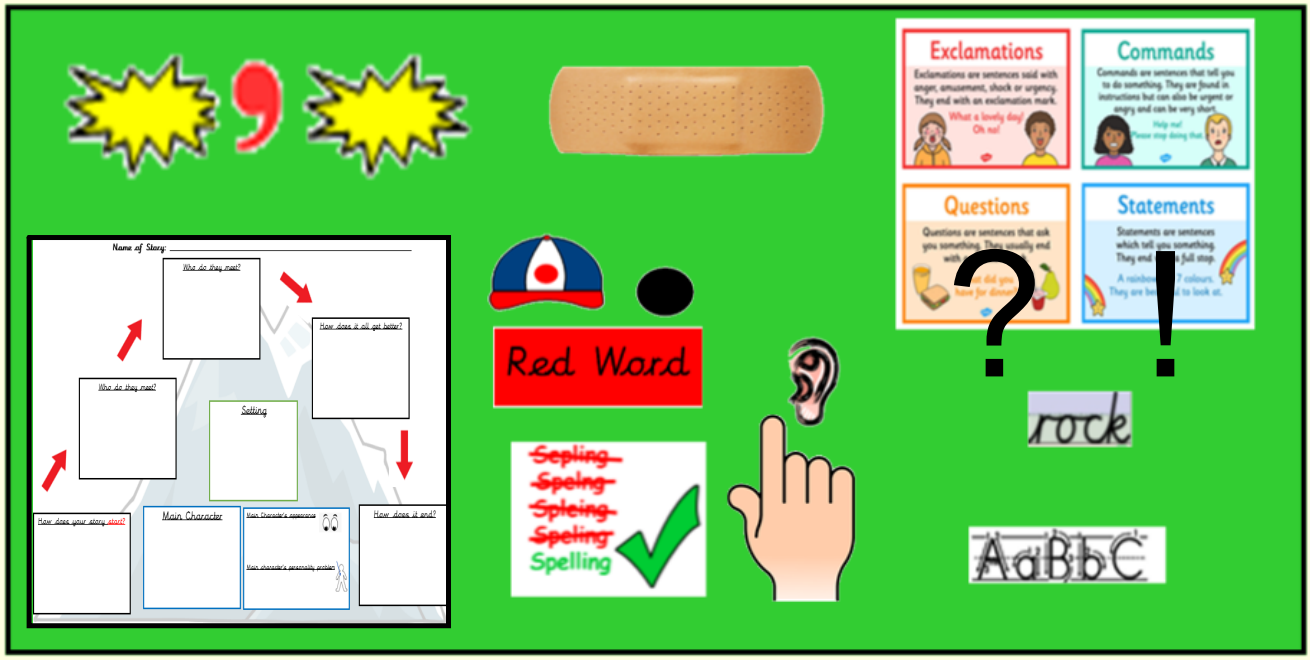

Posh talk the start of your story!

Now it's your turn.

Write your very own Eric Carle Story!
(use your plan to help!)

Share your story with your partner.

Can they give you 2 stars and a wish?

