

Heeley's Highlights

Date 04/04/2025 Issue No: 27

I want to thank you all for the donations of sponsor money. I have been absolutely blown away by the total. So far, we have raised a massive

£4,600.40

That is incredible and I thank all of you for supporting this. We are going to be able to get some really wonderful equipment for the playground, as well as Reception and Nursery outdoor areas.

Next week is our parent consultations, either in the afternoon on your allotted day or on Thursday evening. We hope to see everyone there, as the end of term summary reports will be given to you.

Let's hope this lovely weather continues. Have a lovely weekend.
Emma Heeley, Headteacher

On Friday 11th April, we will hold an Easter Egg Tombola. Please send £1 for the event, every child will receive an easter egg prize. This money will go to the PTA towards their fundraising project. More details of this will follow in next weeks newsletter.

Gold Star Awards

Well done to the children below who were awarded a gold star this week!

The Den: Charlie, for super locking into learning during your focus tasks this week. You are trying really hard with your letter formation and writing on the line.

Rabbit Class: Isaac, you have been having a super go at staying focussed and locking into your learning during phonics time. In addition, you have been a fantastic friend and showing just how caring you are this week Isaac and it has been wonderful to see you taking on that role. Keep it up!

Fox Class: Cecilia, you have shown real compassion for the gorillas of the rainforests this week. You have shared your ideas on why it's unfair that the gorillas are facing extinction. Well done Ceci!

Hedgehog Class: Nancy, for the effort and enthusiasm that you are bringing to your reading at the moment. You are growing in confidence and going from strength to strength. Well Done!

Squirrel Class: Isaac, for your fantastic castle artwork inspired by Paul Klee. You thought carefully about the placement of the shapes and took such care with your work. Well done Isaac!

Badger Class: Connie, for your super 'Katie Story' this week! You really locked in to create a great story. Well done for including lots of descriptive language!

Owl Class: Jaxon, for working hard this week to follow our school rules, listening to adults and managing your emotions better. You have tried hard and kept going when found things tricky. Well done. Keep it up!

Deer Class: Betsy, for some super writing in her story innovation 'Katie and the creepy witch'. You used your toolkit and tried hard to work on your next steps and improve your spelling! Keep it up.
